

MAY 2010 NEWSLETTER

Dear Fusion parents, students and friends,

Happy Vesak Day to all of you who celebrate this auspicious day. We hope to bring you a news update on a monthly basis starting with this month.

In this issue the following info is given;

Welcoming on board two new directors to Fusion Malaysia.

The month of May has been busy with preparations for the July holiday workshops.

From time to time we will give you information about events happening in Fusion Thailand and Hong Kong that you can pass along to your friends and family who reside there.

Fusion Thailand went through a very challenging two months but we are very glad to hear from them that the unrest in Bangkok is coming to an end. We wish all the residents in Bangkok there safe and peaceful times ahead.

If there are events or news that you would like to share with others, please write us and we will pass on the information.

Wishing our students who will be on holiday soon, safe travels!

Warm regards

Shanthini, Kim, Wei, Sabera and Ben

HOLIDAY WORKSHOPS IN JULY

Fusion Academy of Performing Arts students

Fusion Academy of Performing Arts Malaysia is back with their holiday workshops. Fusion will be running 2 sets of workshops in July at Garden International School. As always performers from the U.K and Hong Kong will give the students a great experience!

Each course will run from Monday to Friday with a glittering stage performance on Saturday. Students will be split into a number of different groups according to their age and individual abilities. Senior Fusion students, those aged 8 and 18 will get the opportunity to work on developing skills in dancing and singing whether they are complete beginners or experienced performers.

Those above 18 years of age are also encouraged to join!

For students aged 5–7 year old (juniors) we have constructed a program that incorporates singing, dancing, drama-based activities and exciting theatre-based arts and crafts activities.

Junior Fusion students will have the opportunity to develop their skills and collaborate in part with the Seniors' towards the fabulous show at the end of the week .

- * The workshops are conducted in English
- * Number of students - 23 students per class.
- * Courses appeal to both boys and girls

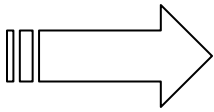

Musical Theatre workshops July 19th to 31st

The two week workshops are set to kick off with a real bang! Both weeks will focus on learning a wide range of skills with a special focus on musical theatre.

GLEE - Is an American musical comedy-drama television series that focuses on a high school musical club (glee club). It's a show about optimism and young kids, for the most part, reinterpreting their classics for a new audience. Fusion will be adding a touch of Glee to the holiday workshops!

Registration is now open- please email workshops@fusionacademy.com.my or visit our website www.fusionacademy.com.my which has all the information about the workshop or call Kim at 012 393 9018 or Shanthini 012 236 0194.

FUSION STUDENTS IN THE NEWS

We at Fusion are very proud that two of our students were picked for a commercial currently showing on ASTRO from auditions held exclusively for Fusion Students in December. Congratulations to Stephan and Sophia Othman Anderson on their success. Look out for them in the 'bola bola' advertisements which are being shown in the weeks leading to the World Cup.

Please do inform us at Fusion if your child has been selected for any commercial, play or performing arts events so that we can share their success stories.

FUSION SATURDAY SCHOOL

We are half way into our second term. The theme for Senior fusion students is

'Dreams'.

For Drama, they have been doing excerpts from Shakespeare and the Owl and the Pussycat under the guidance of Jamie Matthewman. Nish Tham has been working on solo pieces and group performances - 'I dream a dream' 'Any dream will do' and 'Imagine'. Guna has been working on a contemporary piece grooving them along to African drum beats and from the theme song FAME!

Junior fusion students are learning the poem; The 3 Pigs and Goldilocks and the 3 bears. A short medley of songs created through improvisation work done with the students will be in the segment of the performance.

A showcase of their work will be staged on June 26th to mark the end of term 2. Performance for the parents and friends will start at 11.30 am at Garden International school for approx an hour. No admission fee.

Students have to be there at 9am on June 26th .

Sadly we will bid Jamie farewell at the end of term two. A BIG THANK YOU to Jamie and we are sure an exciting future lies ahead for him. Term 3 facilitators will be announced in our next newsletter. Registration for Term 3 is now open. Please send an email to school@fusionacademy.com.my
